Meet the Instructors

Steve Busswood
Head Teaching Professional
sbusswood@fairwinds.ca

Steve turned Professional in 1983, and has been a CPGA Class "A" Professional since 1988. His experience includes: Learning Academy Director at Eaglequest; The Director of Golf at GolfTown Richmond; Director of Instruction at Meadows Golf Center; Teaching Professional at McCleery Golf Academy; Teaching Professional at Delta Practice Center; and Associate Professional at Ledgeview Golf and Country Club.

Trained as a Physical Education teacher, Steve has brought this skill of teaching athletics to his golf instruction. He enjoys interacting with people and helping his clients achieve new levels in their games. He looks forward to helping you achieve your goals and become the player that you have always wanted to be.

Steve's consistent approach to teaching and coaching also provides a learning environment that allows for confident improvement while creating an attitude that will be positive to your game!

Brett Standerwick
Associate Professional
bstanderwick@fairwinds.ca

Brett grew up in Vancouver and began his golfing career at University Golf Club at UBC, just blocks from his childhood home. Earning his CPGA professional status in 2001, Brett now has 8 years of teaching experience. He has completed all 4 levels of the CPGA teaching certification program, as well as his National Coaching Theory Level 1.

Brett joined the Fairwinds Team in 2008. With many years of experience in the golf industry and competitive athletics, Brett possesses the necessary knowledge and skills to enhance the game of every golfer, from the true beginner to the scratch player. Combining physical fitness with golf skills is a key to Brett's philosophy of incorporating the game of golf into a healthy lifestyle.

Sue Maltby
Instructor
smaltby@fairwinds.ca

Sue has been a member of the Fairwinds Golf Club team for 15 years and has been instructing for 13 years. She is a graduate of the 2 Year Golf Management Program in Nelson, BC, and has completed three levels of the CPGA Teaching Certification Program. Sue has a very focussed, patient, and enthusiastic style of instructing, and when not golfing or teaching, she enjoys playing soccer and hockey.
